

GEMs of Texas

(An association of Goan, East Indian and Mangalorean Christians)

The GEMs of Texas must strive to be an integrated organization of communities brought together for the common purposes of retaining, imparting, sharing, promoting and enjoying our cultural heritage with our children, with each other and with the American community as a whole. It must support our communities in various ways by celebrating and strengthening our religious Christian convictions and by alleviating the hardships of those seeking help within the community.
